Disclaimer

THIS PRESENTATION IS BEING SUPPLIED TO YOU SOLELY FOR YOUR INFORMATION AND MAY NOT BE REPRODUCED, FURTHER DISTRIBUTED OR PUBLISHED IN WHOLE OR IN PART BY ANY OTHER PERSON. THIS PRESENTATION DOES NOT CONSTITUTE OR FORM PART OF ANY OFFER FOR SALE OR SOLICITATION OF ANY OFFER TO BUY ANY SECURITIES NOR SHALL IT OR ANY PART OF IT FORM THE BASIS OF OR BE RELIED ON IN CONNECTION WITH ANY CONTRACT OR COMMITMENT TO PURCHASE SECURITIES.

The information contained in this presentation is provided as at the date of this presentation, may be in summary form and is not purported to be complete. No representation or warranty, express or implied, is made or given by or on behalf of Dominion Lending Centres Inc. ("DLC Inc." or the "Corporation") or any of its employees, officers, directors, advisers, representatives, agents or affiliates as to the accuracy, completeness or fairness of the information contained in this presentation. None of the Corporation, its employees, officers, directors, advisers, representatives, agents or affiliates, shall have any liability whatsoever (in negligence or otherwise, whether direct or indirect, in contract, tort or otherwise) for any loss howsoever arising from any use of this presentation or its contents or otherwise arising in connection with this presentation.

The DLC group of companies (the "DLC Group") consists of the Corporation and its three main subsidiaries, being MA Mortgage Architects Inc. ("MA"); MCC Mortgage Centre Canada Inc. ("MCC"); and Newton Connectivity Systems Inc. ("Newton"). The Corporation also holds an indirect 40% equity interest in a non-B20 lender Heartwood Financial, LP ("Heartwood"). The Corporation is not responsible for Heartwood's debts and Heartwood operates independently from the DLC Group. The investment in Heartwood is an equity-accounted investment.

No Other Authorized Statements or Representations: Readers are cautioned that no director, officer, employee, agent, affiliate or representation of the Corporation is authorized or permitted to make any written or verbal representation or statement concerning the business or activities of the Corporation, except as set out in this presentation. The Corporation expressly disclaims any written or verbal statement in addition to or contrary to anything contained in this presentation and cautions readers that they are not entitled to rely on any written or verbal statement made by any person to the contrary.

Non-IFRS Measures: Management presents certain non-IFRS financial performance measures which we use as supplemental indicators of our operating performance. These non-IFRS measures do not have any standardized meaning and therefore are unlikely to be comparable to the calculation of similar measures used by other companies and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for measures of performance prepared in accordance with IFRS.

Adjusted EBITDA is defined as earnings before finance expense, taxes, depreciation, amortization, and any unusual, certain non-cash or one-time items. While adjusted EBITDA is not a recognized measure under IFRS, management believes that it is a useful supplemental measure as it provides management and investors with an insightful indication of the performance of the Corporation. Adjusted EBITDA is an assessment of the normalized results and cash generated by the main operating activities, prior to the consideration of how these activities are financed or taxed, as a facilitator for valuation and a proxy for cashflow. Management applies adjusted EBITDA in its operational decision making as an indication of the financial performance of its main operating activities. Investors should be cautioned, however, that adjusted EBITDA should not be construed as an alternative to a statement of cash flows as a measure of liquidity and cash flows. The methodologies we use to determine adjusted EBITDA may differ from those utilized by other issuers or companies and, accordingly, adjusted EBITDA as used in this presentation may not be comparable to similar measures used by other issuers or companies. Readers are cautioned that adjusted EBITDA should not be construed as an alternative to net income determined in accordance with IFRS as indicators of an issuer's performance, nor should it be construed as an alternative to cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities as measures of liquidity and cash flows. Adjusted EBITDA margin is defined as adjusted EBITDA divided by revenue.

Adjusted net income and Adjusted EPS are defined as net income before any unusual or non-operating items such as foreign exchange, fair value adjustments, and one-time non-recurring items. Other one-time items included within other expense adjustments are insignificant items included within "other income" on the condensed consolidated statements of income that are not related to the main operating activities. Investors should be cautioned, however, that adjusted net income should not be construed as an alternative to net income determined in accordance with IFRS as an indicator of an issuer's performance or to cash flows from operating, investing, and financing activities as a measure of liquidity and cash flows. The methodologies we use to determine adjusted net income may differ from those utilized by other issuers or companies and, accordingly, adjusted net income as used in this MD&A may not be comparable to similar measures used by other issuers or companies.

Free cash flow represents how much cash a business generates after spending what is required to maintain or expand its current asset base. Free cash flow attributable to common shareholders represents the cash available to the Corporation for general corporate purposes, including repayments on our credit facilities, investment in growth capital expenditures, return of capital to common shareholders through the repurchases of Common Shares and discretionary payment of dividends to common shareholders, and cash to be retained by the company. This is a useful measure that allows management and users to understand the cash available to enhance shareholder value. Free cash flow is determined by adjusting certain investing and financing activities. Investors should be cautioned, however, that free cash flow should not be construed as an alternative to a statement of cash flows as a measure of liquidity and cash flows. The methodologies we use to determine free cash flow may differ from those utilized by other issuers or companies and, accordingly, free cash flow as used in this document may not be comparable to similar measures used by other issuers or companies.

Please see the Corporation's latest Management Discussion and Analysis ("MD&A") dated May 7, 2026, for the three months ended March 31, 2026 for further information on adjusted EBITDA, Free Cash Flow and adjusted diluted EPS within the "Non-IFRS Financial Performance Measures" section. The Corporation's MD&A is available on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca.

Forward-Looking Information: Certain statements in this document constitute forward-looking information under applicable securities legislation. Forward-looking information typically contains statements with words such as "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "will," "expect," "plan," "intend," or similar words suggesting future outcomes or outlooks. Forward-looking information in this document includes, but is not limited to: that our diversified revenue will provide resilience against market fluctuations, that our EBITDA margins will be positively impacted by revenue growth and we will be able to further increase EBITDA as DLC Group grows its broker network and funded mortgage volumes, our intention to continue to pay a quarterly dividend, that we will be able to continue to have organic growth from existing brokers and recruit new mortgage brokers, that our Newton adoption will continue to grow, that we will be able to expand our reach and capture growth in Canada's evolving mortgage landscape.

Such forward-looking information is based on a number of assumptions which may prove to be incorrect. Such forward-looking information is necessarily based on many factors including those identified below that, while considered reasonable by the Corporation as at the date hereof considering management's experience and perception of current conditions and expected developments, are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies. Known and unknown factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements. Such factors include, but are not limited to, changes in taxes and legislation; increased operating, general and administrative, and other costs; changes in interest rates; general business, economic and market conditions; impact of tariffs and other trade actions; the uncertainty of estimates and projections relating to future revenue, taxes, costs and expenses; the outcome of existing and potential lawsuits, regulatory actions, audits and assessments; and other risks and uncertainties described elsewhere in this document and in our other filings with Canadian securities authorities.

Many of these uncertainties and contingencies may affect our actual results and could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements made by, or on behalf of the Corporation. Readers are cautioned that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. All forward-looking statements made in this presentation are qualified by these cautionary statements. The foregoing list of risks is not exhaustive. For more information relating to risks, see the risk factors identified in our Annual 2025 MD&A and 2025 Annual Information Form dated March 24, 2026. The forward-looking information contained in this document is made as of the date hereof and, except as required by applicable securities laws, we undertake no obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statements or information, whether because of new information, future events or otherwise.

Closing the Mortgage Broker Penetration Gap Unlocks Path to More Than Doubling Market Size

Mortgage brokers currently represent ~32% of mortgage originations in Canada¹—a penetration rate significantly lower than comparable markets like Australia (75%) and the UK (87%) despite similar market dynamics^{2,3}.

Achieving penetration levels seen in Australia and the UK would more than double the size of the Canadian mortgage broker market, providing access to $280+ billion in additional annual mortgage originations.

Near-Term Outlook: Strong Renewal Market And Improving Housing Activity

- Mortgage origination volumes continue to benefit from a strong renewal market as pandemic-era mortgages reach their term and the decline in interest rates spurs demand
- Canadian residential housing market is expected to remain muted in 2026 with an expected 1% increase in sales activity year-over-year¹
- DLCG has benefited from the strong renewal/refinancing market with 59% of submissions through Velocity coming from renewals/refinancings in the three months ended March 31, 2026, up from 50% in the three months ended March 31, 2026

Q1 2026 Highlights: Resilient and Consistent Performance

- Consistent FMV despite a strong comparable quarter in Q1 2025 driven by strong renewal market, increased broker productivity, and greater market presence across Canada.
- An increase Velocity adoption to a record 85% in Q1 2026 from 79% last year, drove the 7% increase in revenue.
- The strong top-line (partly offset by higher operating expenses) resulted in 9% Adjusted EBITDA growth and Adjusted EBITDA margins of 44%.

Capital Allocation Supported by Strong Cash Flow & Balance Sheet

DLCG's strong balance sheet is well positioned to support the Company's capital allocation priorities:

- Growth: Grow both organically through the recruitment of brokers and inorganically through accretive acquisitions.
- Capital Returns: Deliver value to shareholders through a focused dividend and buyback policy. In March 2026, DLCG announced a 25% increase to the quarterly dividend effective June 2026.
- Debt Repayment: Maintain strong financial discipline to ensure flexibility, capitalize on growth opportunities and navigate any economic uncertainty with resilience.
